URBAN LEAF CAFE & FUDGE STATION

20 Scarr St, Cloncurry
Ph 07 4742 0657

@urbanleafcloncurry

Urban Leaf Café was established in 2023 on the site of the historic Bio Café. It adjoined the outdoor cinema which first screened 'talkies' in 1927. Locals and visitors enjoy city-worthy coffee and fresh, homemade food as well as some incredible baking made on the premises. The outdoor eating area is dog and child friendly and the perfect spot to indulge in the weekly menu specials.

@fudgestation

The finest Belgian chocolate confectionary handmade in Cloncurry. Featuring a range of decadent fudge, brittle and chocolate bars, all made locally using premium Belgian Callebaut couverture chocolate. Spoil yourself and try some today.

CLONCURRY BAKERY

42 Scarr St, Cloncurry
Ph 07 4742 1442

Visit the Cloncurry Bakery and enjoy a world famous delicious Curry Pie. The bakery also features a great range of bakery delights, coffee, cold drinks and sweets. Open Monday to Saturday from 6am. Fully air conditioned with spacious indoor seating.

THE CENTRAL HOTEL

46 Scarr St, Cloncurry
Ph 07 4742 1418

@centralhotelcloncurry

The Central Hotel is situated on the corner of Scarr and Sheaffe Streets in Cloncurry and prides itself on providing great service and affordable air-conditioned family accommodation.

The Ultimate Curry Crawl Challenge can be found at The Central Hotel!

Take on the 'Johnny Cash - Burning Ring of Fire' Curry and if you can eat the whole plate, receive a free schooner of beer on the house!

There will be a milder version available for those 'faint at heart', but the Ultimate Curry Crawl challenge has been set. Will you be game?

THE WAGON WHEEL RESTAURANT

54 Ramsay St, Cloncurry
Ph 07 4742 1866

wagonwheelcloncurry.com.au

Located in Ramsay Street, The Wagon Wheel is the oldest liquor licensed premises in North West Queensland, with a licence that was granted more than 135 years ago. It was established as the Prince of Wales Hotel in 1876. The current restaurant building was built in 1926.

Offering well-priced accommodation, licensed restaurant and takeaway pizza and pasta.

QUAMBY PUB

Burke Development Rd, Cloncurry
Ph 07 4742 5952

@quambypub

Located 40km north of Cloncurry, The Quamby Pub was rebuilt in 2023. The pub is the remaining building of a once prosperous gold mining and cattle fattening district and comes alive when the annual Quamby Rodeo is held in July each year. Known for its friendly atmosphere, great meals, cheap drinks and good accommodation. The Pub is camping and pet friendly and has a refreshing swimming pool to cool off in. Highly recommend people to stop and stay.

KALKADOON HOTEL

5 Stanfield St, Three Rivers
Ph 07 4742 5042

@kajabbipub

The Kalkadoon Hotel is situated in Kajabbi, 100km north west of Cloncurry. Kajabbi was a location where the cattle owners from the state's far north west brought their herds for shipment to the coast. Kalkadoon Hotel was named after the local Aboriginal tribe. Jeff and Lynette Bambrick bought the hotel in 2014 and have fully renovated it, while trying to stay true to the building's original character and charm.

BURKE & WILLS ROADHOUSE

Burke Development Rd, Four Ways
Ph 0409 320 333

@theburkeandwillsroadhouse

180km north of Cloncurry and breaking the trip between there and Normanton on the Matilda Highway is the Burke & Wills Roadhouse, so named after the route taken by the ill-fated explorers.

The roadhouse offers food and cold drinks along with accommodation and an adjoining caravan park.

The licenced restaurant offers wonderful dine-in or takeaway meals with the handmade pies or famous hamburger a must try!

THE DUCHESS HOTEL

1 Duke St, Duchess
Ph 07 4748 4833

@TheDuchessHotel

The Duchess Hotel is located 123km south west of Cloncurry and lies in the footsteps of Burke and Wills. The township was founded in 1897 and is rich in mining and railway history. The Hotel itself was rebuilt in the 1960's and is the last standing of four that existed in the towns hey day. The lunch menu is available every day and features the Katsu Curry Chicken Burger which can be washed down with a Curry Gin & Tonic!

Check out the Facebook page for monthly curry nights from April to October.
